

Weddings in Cyprus

It is possible for the ceremony to take place either in a registry office, or in the grounds of some registry offices, and for those who prefer a more traditional setting we can offer a chapel or church wedding with the ceremony conducted by an Anglican minister or Catholic priest. Please note that most of the churches and chapels in Cyprus are only lent to the Anglican church to use for the ceremony. Have a look at the table below and on the following page which highlights wedding options and where they are available: from chapels to churches and town halls to hotels.
